5. Director's Report
  - FMLA and Other Library Leave Policies
    - Last month, it was noted that OPL staff are not eligible for FMLA provisions because we have fewer than 50 employees. The matter was referred to the Personnel Committee.
    - The Personnel Committee decided to consult with Joe Saeli. His firm will review the entire benefits section to ensure that everything is legal, consistent, and fair.
  - Olean Times Herald Column
    - The Library will have a monthly column in the Olean Times Herald at the invitation of Jim Eckstrom, Managing Editor.

- The column will print on a Saturday of our choice, depending on when we want something published. Every month will feature a different topic.

- The grant totaled $444.20, with $297.76 from the Hanson Fund and $257.44 from the Janowicz Fund.

WNYLRC Annual Meeting

- La Voie requested $1,500 for the Summer Reading Program presenters, which was approved at their meeting yesterday. The Friends have been funding this program for the last five years. They will also be donating their annual book endowment gift in September.
- The Library plans to ask the Friends to consider paying for a permanent Zoom setup for the meeting room. The Library is getting additional requests from groups for Zoom meetings too.

News from the Library: Book Vending Machine

- The book vending machine, anonymously donated to the Library by former Olean residents through the American Endowment Foundation, arrived this week. It looks very nice and will attract attention.
- Patrons of all ages will be able to win books from it as part of the Summer Reading Program and other programs and events throughout the year. We can also give people tokens to "purchase" books to celebrate special occasions. It should be fun, and we appreciate the generosity of the donors.
