Library Receives Donation of Marion Coughlin Paintings

By Michelle La Voie, Director

In September, the Library was the recipient of a donation of 20 Marion Coughlin paintings! This generous gift was presented to the Library by former Olean residents, Dr. Carol Royer of Mabank, TX, and Mr. Dave Royer of La Pine, OR.

Dr. Royer contacted the Library in July, asking about our potential interest in the donation. We explained that we were in possession of a small number of her paintings, which were collected by the Library's former arts curator, Robert Taylor, who retired in 2016.

Royer shared her family's connection to Coughlin, saying that her mother, Edna Royer, had no living relatives by the age of 12, and wound up living with the Coughlin family in Olean while she attended high school. Marion and Edna became close friends, and Marion eventually willed her painting collection to Edna.

The Royer children, Carol and Dave, inherited the collection from their mother, and felt it would be in good hands at the Library, where the whole community could enjoy it.

Exhibits of her work were held in the Gallery in both 2012 and 2017, and both were extremely well received by the community. However, because the Library only had a small number of her paintings, community members were asked to loan items from their personal collections to help fill out the exhibits. Therefore, we were very excited about the possibility of a donation of a large number of paintings.

Royer visited the area in September and brought the paintings to the Library during her stay. They are an impressive collection of work. An exhibit of this collection will take place in the Library's Art Gallery throughout the month of November, beginning Wednesday, November 2nd.

Author Talk: Fr. Dan Riley | Thursday, November 17 | 7:00 p.m. in the Gallery

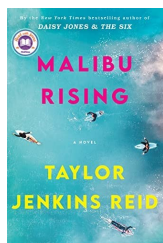

Dan Riley, O.F.M. '64, is known for his powerful prayers and reflections, drawing often from the beauty of nature and the strength of relationships. Now, Fr. Dan, an alumnus of St. Bonaventure University and founder of Mt. Irenaeus, invites others on an ancient journey, seen through the eyes of a contemporary pilgrim, in his first book, Franciscan Lectio: Reading the World through the Living Word.

Franciscan Lectio, which the author describes as an “interpretive book”, is for all those who are on a spiritual journey who long to see the world more beautifully and deeply and to become more attentive and present. It is divided into four parts following a model St. Clare offers: Gaze, Consider, Contemplate, and Imitate, all of which invite readers to explore with their own imagination.

Stop down to the Art Gallery to see hear about this local author's first book and ask him any questions you may have! Refreshments will be served.

Brown Bag Book Club | Monday, November 21 | 12:30 p.m. in the Gallery

You bring the lunch, we supply the refreshments! Join us as we discuss Malibu Rising by Taylor Jenkins Reid in November! Multiple copies of the book are available through the library system. There is a Zoom option for anyone interested. Email programming@oleanlibrary.org for the link.

Coming up in December is People We Meet on Vacation by Emily Henry, and January's pick will be The Happiest Man on Earth by Eddie Jaku.

Adult Trivia Night | Tuesday, November 29 | 7:00 p.m.

We will be playing '80s trivia this month! Bring your friends and family to play. Anyone is welcome! Winning team always wins a prize!

This month's arts and crafts programs are made possible by the Frances Bean O'Connell Arts Grant. If you are interested in donating to the Frances Bean O'Connell Art Program Fund, please contact Keely Doyle, Director of Philanthropic Services at the Erie Community Foundation at 814-454-0843, ext. 101, or by email at kdoyle@eriecommunityfoundation.org.
