

Chad Taylor

July 2024

IT & Technical Services

Board Report

Many 3D printing requests mostly small things for teens.

Only a few sessions left of the Digital Photography program which has been very successful. Starting with about 20, we have had about twelve regular participants that persisted from the beginning. It is a fairly high level of detail which likely explains the drop off. We are considering more focused independent sessions in the future.