

Chad Taylor

August 2024

IT & Technical Services

Board Report

We had a rather strange issue with two IP addresses that cropped up accidentally with the addition of a new database. Mike was able to correct with Spectrum. We also had a switch that the security cameras were attached to fail randomly from a software update - It has been replaced.