You can look forward to...

Logan the storm chaser, decorating cookies, psychic connection class, Wildwood Sanitarium talk, scavenger hunt (for the kids), Science experiments (for the kids), Beets, a connection to our cultural roots of eastern Europe, The 13 nights of Halloween where Sheryl, the other library assistants and I paired up to make up pop up events while including all large events for 13 nights before Halloween as an Homage to the early 90's and 2000's where they would play a movie every night in honor and have all things spooky. Earlier this month (of October) we offered a bob ross painting class, a pumpkin book class and cooking club!
